Entry due November 4, 2024.

LATE FEE: $200 – If entry is received November 5 - Noon the day prior to class. This class is a special event pilot class that is unapproved by the NRHA. Entries will be limited, based on scheduling.

The Futurity Slide will be held during the December 4 performance and will incorporate reiners with backgrounds in calas de caballo, the Mexican charreada competition in which reining horses excel. The futurity slide will also include armed forces veterans competing in a special section. The performance will also feature the awards ceremony for the Collegiate & Youth NRHA Judging Contest.

The event will be open to horses of all ages and all breeds and those horses will be shown in Western or traditional charreada attire. Horses need not have a competition license.

The class will be open to riders of all ages and riders are not required to be an NRHA member.

Riders may compete on up to 3 horses.

This event will feature a guaranteed $100,000 payout. The following are the actual places that will be paid:

1.$30,000	2.$18,000	3.$14,000	4.$10,000	5.$7,000	6.$5,000
7.$4,000	8.$4,000	9.$4,000	10.$4,000

Specific guidelines for the slide contest scoring system are:

- Maneuvers for evaluation include approach, stop and hesitation
- -3 to +3 scale scoring system for use on each maneuver
- A base starting score of 70
- The required number of judges to judge a slide contest will follow NRHA event approval guidelines
- In a Five Judge System, the high and low scores will be dropped
- No marker penalty will be applied; all other penalties apply
- Ties for first place will be run off. If still tied after the runoff, they will be named co-champions.
